Since its inception 6 years ago with the Chile Explore Report, monthly newsletter, Chile Explore Group has developed to supply informative, organized seminars, workshops and international conferences for the exploration industry addressing both technical and legislative issues to provide a platform for the industry moving forward.

In 2019, Chile Explore Group organized the Society of Economic Geologists (SEG) conference in Santiago, Chile. With over 900 delegates from over 40 countries this was both acclaimed as being not only their most successful in terms of attendees but more importantly in technical content.

Looking to grow from previous success, in 2020, Chile Explore Group will run seminars on drilling (Optimization), Geophysics (Looking into Our World) and Communities. With workshops planned by global consultants, networking events and the annual Chile Explore Congress (Unity) the group will look to continue to support the industry in Chile and Latin America.

SEGMENTS:

1

Acquisition

Pushing the limits of the achievable; from planning through to execution

- Designing surveys for optimal answers to geological unknowns.
- Incorporating safety and environmental impact as a survey design characteristic.
- Overcoming acquisition challenges in airborne, ground, marine and downhole systems.
- Deeper, higher resolution, faster, and under more adverse conditions.

2

Processing and Modelling

Getting the best from data

- Getting more from the data – processing techniques.
- Toward ever better models for geophysical datasets.
- Bridging the gap – geological interpretation of geophysical models”.

3

Case histories

Making the most of the geophysical results
